University of South Florida Announces the 2013 Golden Bull Award Winners

TAMPA, Fla., April 30, 2013 – University of South Florida Student Affairs recently honored 20 outstanding undergraduate and graduate students with a prestigious Golden Bull award. These students were selected for exemplifying exceptional leadership and service to both the university and the community, as well for demonstrating:

- Success and academic achievement through research, pursuit of knowledge and critical thinking skills
- Enhanced global experience and understanding of cultural and ethnic diversity
- Personal and professional potential development
- A commitment to respect, integrity, and civility

The honorees lauded for their achievements this year are:

Anson Angail     Jacob Jenkins
Mary Babcock     Bionqua Lynch
Alicia Billington Oscar Merino
Falon Blessing   Randell Nairn
Jillian Donohue  George Papadeas
Ayesha Farooq    Sarah Pollei
Gina Ferrara     Lauren Richardson
Brian Goff       Brandon Schuster
Danielle Grams   Melissa Stewart
Stephanie Howard May Thach

Additionally, Mr. Russ Driscoll, a significant presence in USF’s fraternity community, was also posthumously recognized with a Golden Bull award for his lifelong contributions through leadership and service.

Student Affairs at the University of South Florida provides learning opportunities and environments for students to discover, integrate, and apply new knowledge that increases their capacity for personal growth, responsible citizenship and ethical leadership. For more information, visit www.sa.usf.edu.